Dear Professor Chomsky,

The Brazilian Society of Linguistics (ABRALIN) founded in 1969 by the late Prof. Dr. Joaquim Mattoso Câmara Jr. will commemorate its 25th anniversary next year. During all this period of time, it has developed lots of activities in the field of linguistics studies and it has also congregated scholars, researchers, students and other people interested in Linguistics. At present time it has 850 members.

Among its main activities are the biannual Institute of Linguistics and the annual participation, with diversified activities, in the meeting of Brazilian Society for the Progress of Science (SBPC). For its 25th anniversary, among other specific events, ABRALIN will hold its 1st International Congress in Salvador, Bahia, BRAZIL, from September 11th to September 16th, 1994.

As President of ABRALIN, I was delegated to invite you to be our guest speaker at the Congress opening ceremony, due on September 11th, at 6 PM. The lecture subject will be of your entire choice, however we would appreciate it were related to aspects of cultural and linguistics policies for countries under development.

We are aware that you are an extremely busy scholar engaged in other activities besides your intense linguistic research work. Nonetheless, we would be highly honored in having you here for the Congress. Your presence will be of inestimable value for Brazilian scholars by having the opportunity of sharing your personal experience and knowledge.

ABRALIN will be responsible for all air ticket, accomodation, food and chauffeured car expenses.

We do hope you will be able to attend our Meeting as speaker.

Yours respectfully

Suzana Alice Marcelino Cardoso
